Lutefisk Sushi volume E* opens at Altered Esthetics

It's the fifth installment of Lutefisk Sushi...the most Minnesotan comics show in existence! Lutefisk Sushi E is a limited edition collection of mini-comics by Minnesota cartoonists, packaged in hand-silkscreened boxes. The box sets, designed by Eisner-winning cartoonist Zander Cannon (Double Barrel; Top Ten) will be released at a gallery exhibition at Altered Esthetics this November.

This year's exhibition will feature art by more than 35 Minnesota cartoonists. Join us opening night for comics, original art, refreshments, and conversation with local comic artists. Brought to you by The Cartoonist Conspiracy (www.cartoonistconspiracy.com), Big Time Attic (www.bigtimeattic.com), and Altered Esthetics.

About the gallery

Altered Esthetics is a nonprofit 501(c)3 community gallery run by artists, for artists. Bringing together dimensional art, music, poetry, performance art, and film, we are one of the most creatively diverse galleries in the Twin Cities. Altered Esthetics holds group shows so that multiple artists of all backgrounds can display their perspectives on a given theme, and works to sustain the historical role of artists as a voice of society through exhibits, events, services, workshops, and programs.
